

College Notes

A dozen or more of the students took advantage of the excursion rates and attended the funeral of Hon. John Sherman, at Mansfield last week.

Arrangements are being made to issue from the college, a monthly publication to be known as "The College Bulletin." It will be conducted by the faculty and students, and devoted to college affairs, the work of the literary societies, etc.

Many students are beginning to realize more fully the meaning of Matthew Arnold's fine phrase, "sweetness and light," and there is a consequent increase in enthusiasm for the culture that prepares for the noblest life.

The Scientific Society held its first regular meeting last Wednesday. The meeting was well attended and a goodly number have signed the constitution and will do active work. The main feature of the last meeting was an interesting and profitable talk by Prof. Witter on Bacteriology and Immunity from Disease.

A Students' Volunteer Band for Home and Foreign Missions has been organized with 21 members. The Band will be under the leadership of Prof. Furry, and will first make a study of John R. Mott's work on the "Evangelization of the World in this Generation." The organization will give strength, spirit, and enthusiasm to the religious life to the College.

Correspondence courses of study are being prepared to be offered those who cannot attend College but wish to do work under the direction of the faculty. Many will doubtless embrace this opportunity for study and higher culture.

Miss Ada Sanger spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in the country.

E. D. Burnworth filled his regular appointment at Glenford over Sunday.

The students are demonstrating their practical Christianity by ministering to the temporal and spiritual wants of Mr. Keister.

We are pleased to learn that Miss Etta Crunkleton, of North Liberty, O., has so far recovered from her recent sickness that she will be able to enter College in a few weeks.
